NewView Oklahoma Announces Appointment of New Optometrist

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK (August 22,2018) - NewView Oklahoma today announced the appointment of optometrist Dr. Byron Bonner, who is now seeing patients at the NewView Low Vision Clinic in Oklahoma City at 710 West Wilshire, Suite 102.

Dr. Bonner received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Law Enforcement/Juvenile Justice from East Central University and his Doctorate of Optometry from University of Incarnate Word-Rosenberg School of Optometry. Dr. Bonner had the privilege of being the first class to graduate from UIW-RSO. Being dedicated to the school's development, Dr. Bonner founded the RSO Chapter of the College of Optometrist in Vision Development and also the International Gold Key Optometric Honor Society RSO Chapter. During his time there, Dr. Bonner received the COVD Award of Excellence in Vision Therapy and Outstanding Clinical Excellence Award.

Dr. Byron Bonner is originally from Moore, Oklahoma and is a specialist in Pediatric/Developmental Optometry. With a collegiate sports background, Dr. Bonner passionate about Sports Vision Training, and concussion/mTBI management and he has a true passion to ensure the pediatric population is not overlooked

Dr. Bonner feels he will become a well-rounded Optometrist that will be able to understand and manage all aspects of the profession. Dr. Bonner is most excited about learning more about Cortical Visual Impairment and further specializing in Neuro-visual Rehabilitation.

Dr. Bonner is a member of the Oklahoma Association of Optometric Physicians and the American Optometric Association. He enjoys doing various activities with his loving wife and amazing two children.
