NEWVIEW OKLAHOMA ANNOUNCES ANNUAL FUNDRAISING LUNCHEON

Tulsa, OK (August 30, 2017) – NewView Oklahoma, the only private in-state provider of comprehensive services for people with significant vision loss that cannot be corrected with glasses, surgery or medication and the largest employer of Oklahomans who are blind or vision impaired, will hold its signature annual fundraising event Wednesday, October 25 at 12:00 p.m. at the Renaissance Tulsa Hotel and Convention Center, 6808 South 107th East Avenue. Sarah Hansel and Sarah Miller, both shareholders at Hall Estill, will serve as the honorary chairs of the third annual “Envision the Future” luncheon.

Tulsa resident Trey Lewis, who has been involved with NewView programs since he was 10 years old and is now a NewView employee, will share his personal testimony about NewView Oklahoma’s life-changing programs and services. Trey was diagnosed with Neurofibromatosis when he was 3 years old and has 20-600 vision in his right eye and motion only in his left eye. Trey attended ACM at UCO and earned his degree in Technology Application Studies in December 2015.

WHAT: Envision the Future: The 2017 NewView Oklahoma Benefit Luncheon

WHEN: Wednesday, October 25 from 12:00 p.m.- 1:00 p.m.

WHERE: Renaissance Tulsa Hotel and Convention Center, 6808 South 107th East Avenue

WHY: More than 20,000 people in the Tulsa metropolitan area are affected by significant uncorrectable vision loss. This event raises awareness about how Tulsa residents can support NewView’s life-changing programs for those who are blind or vision-impaired.

The free luncheon is sponsored by Hall Estill and is open to the public. Seats and sponsorship opportunities are still available. For more information about NewView Oklahoma or the benefit luncheon, or if you are interested in hosting a table or sponsoring the event, contact Tiffany Henley, special events coordinator at thenley@newviewoklahoma.org or by phone at 918.933.4075.
